

I tried to be cool.

Twenty years later I just decided to be me.

I curated all of it.

How I dressed, how I talked,
how I walked into a room and
how I left it.

All tuned to one thing: don't get rejected.

Sandro Dalla Torre
@thesunchi

Being cool is a control move.
You manage how people see
you so closely that no one gets near the parts you decided weren't okay.

After a while the act runs
itself.

You forget there's someone underneath, and he gets quieter every year.

Sandro Dalla Torre

Dropping the act doesn't make you weak.
It makes you real.

And real is the only thing that actually connects.
