

Your shadow isn't only your darkness.

Your greatness is hiding there too.

Everyone talks about the dark shadow: anger, jealousy, shame.

Jung pointed at another one most people miss.

The golden shadow.
Your own unlived potential.

Sandro Dalla Torre
@thesunchi

You catch sight of it through admiration.

The person whose ease makes you ache, whose freedom irritates you.

Sandro Dalla Torre

You're not just impressed.

You're seeing a capacity that lives in you too.

As a kid, standing out felt risky.

Being too much threatened belonging, so you learned to dim.

Sandro Dalla Torre
@thesunchi

That's why the success can feel hollow.

You're achieving from the safe, smaller version of you.

Sandro Dalla Torre

Claiming it isn't arrogance.
Your gold needs the same thing your darkness does:
permission to exist.
