

I numbed myself for years to keep producing.
I called it discipline.

I pushed my anger down so I could keep working.

Numbed it with food, with busyness.

I taught clarity to thousands while my own life was a mess.

Self-betrayal doesn't look like failure.

It looks like the promotion.

Sandro Dalla Torre

The discipline.

The guy who's got it all together.

That's the disguise.

The cost stays invisible for a long time.

The real price isn't burnout.
It's the distance between who you show the world and who you actually are.

Sandro Dalla Torre
@thesunchi

That gap grows quietly.
And one day it cracks,
because it was never honest.
